The 1982-1983 School year offered new opportunities and new sources of pride for the students, staff and community of Freeland. Mrs. Case was transformed from librarian to linguist as she became Freeland's French Master. Mr. Frenzel put two and two together to form quartets in Vocal Music. Mr. Storm was given the opportunity to preach what he practices in Economics class. Frau Miller reintroduced World History and Mrs. Darwin made initial contacts for a Co-op program.

New and reinstituted offerings were only part of the picture. Mr. Schultz returned to the Language Arts Dept. after a years absence, Biology became a graduation requirement starting with the class of 1986. Saturday School took the place of Saturday cartoons for some students. Mrs. Hacker returned to the Guidance Dept. and Mr. Hacker to U.S. History.

Extracurriculars continued to flourish during 1982-1983. Mr. Hacker continued to provide direction for the football program, Mr. Franz — basketball and Mr. Schultz — baseball. Mr. Terwilliger "CHIPPED" in where he could, Mr. Hollingsworth "RAN" up some good results and Mr. Craig provided inspiration for Girl's athletics and direction for the entire athletic program.

In non-athletics the offerings were also strong. Mr. and Mrs. Perry teamed up to cover yearbook. Mrs. Smith adopted the senior class. Mr. Perry started an art club. Mrs. Miller swore to her efforts with mock trials. Mr. Parsch, Mrs. Urbancik, Mrs. McCartney sponsored the underclassmen. The entire staff renewed their efforts to provide meaningful experiences for students and Mr. Shephard and the Band marched onward.

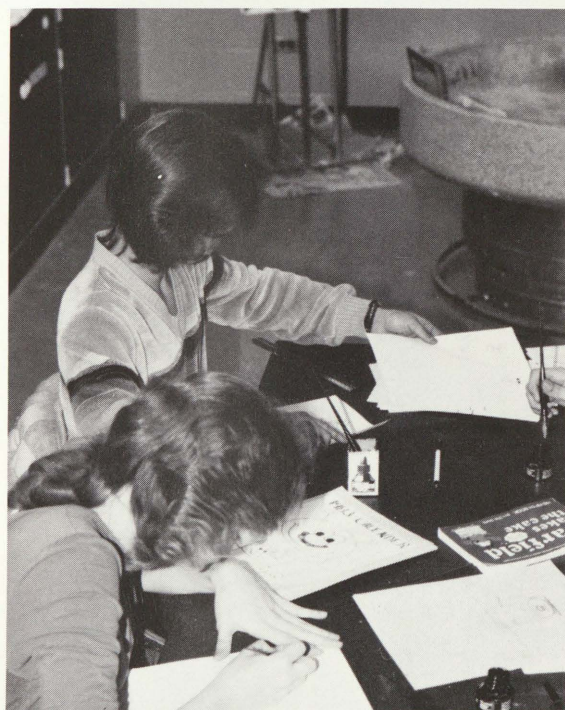

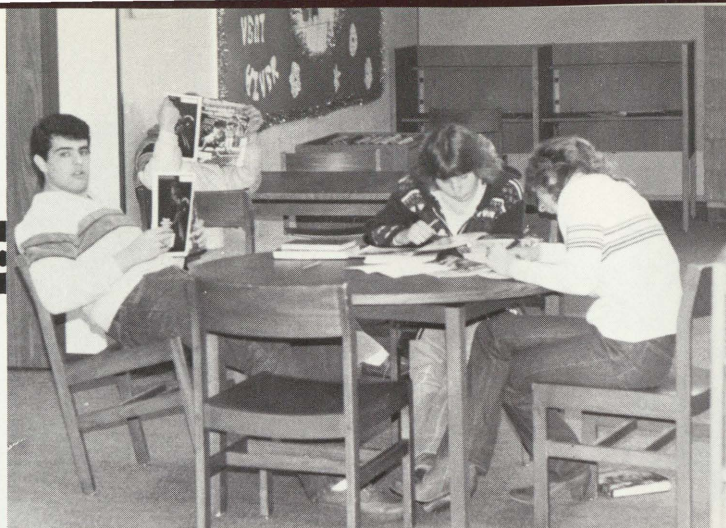

The 1982-1983 School year promised to be a great one from the onset. Everyone who worked to make it great is appreciated. I continue to be pleased with our students, staff and community and I'm proud to be from Freeland.

Cathy J. Card

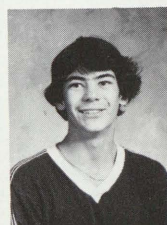

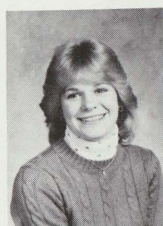

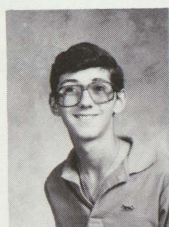

Cathy was a 1982 Freeland High School graduate — a dream that she worked hard to fulfill. She enjoyed dancing, shopping, making scrapbooks, going to basketball games, and volunteering in pulmonary rehabilitation at St. Mary's Hospital. Each summer Cathy looked forward to Cystic Fibrosis camp where she made many friends who became her pen pals. She will be missed by those who knew her.

Mr. Raymond Hollingsworth, a teacher here at Freeland, was chosen by the senior class to give the Commencement Address. He entitled his address "The Quality of Your Life" and gave the seniors much advice on how to lead a fulfilling life. His speech was very moving and his words will linger in the hearts and minds of all who were present at graduation.

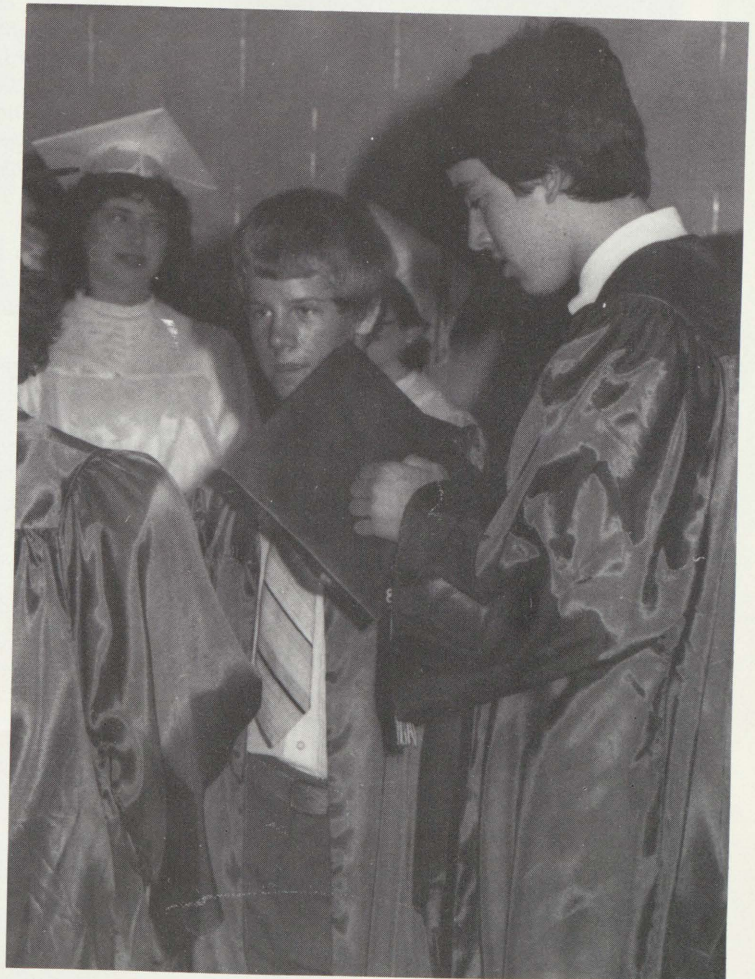

After Mr. Hollingsworth's address, Mr. Lloyd Lewis, Superintendent, presented the class and Janice Evans, President of the Board of Education presented the senior class their diplomas.

The fashion trend this year ...

could best be described as "varied". A person could choose to dress within the confines of his/her personality or his/her mood.

You can go from "prep" to "punk" or mini-skirts to masculine. Bright colors and alligators are definitely in!

VAL-SPEAK DICTIONARY

Fer sure: Really, for sure.

I'm sure: I'm not sure or I'm really sure.

Grody: Disgusting.

Grody to the max: Totally disgusting.

Totally: In every way.

Barf me out: That's disgusting.

Tubular: Like awesome.

Awesome: Like tubular.

Soci: Social.

Bag it: Forget it.

Ohmigahd: I can't believe it (good).

Gag me with a spoon: I can't believe it (bad).

. . . at one time meant "of or pertaining to tubes". But in "Valley Talk" it means "awesome". Just when people started understanding the slang of the day, a whole new language emerged — "Valley Talk"!

GARFIELD by Jim Davis

Snoopy and Mickey Mouse had to move over this year to leave room for Garfield and the Smurfs.

Computers — here to stay or just a fad? Everyone seems to be jumping on the computer keyboard. We are told that soon there will be a computer in every home.

Video Games have taken the country by storm. You can find them in a large percentage of homes today. Throngs of people cling to the joysticks of Packman, Donkey Kong, and Frogger.

MUSIC ...

of the year 1983 was one of beginnings and one of endings. The Eagles broke up as well as the Doobie Brothers. Group members Don Henley, Glenn Frey (Eagles) and Michael McDonald (Doobies) have successful solo albums out, however. New groups of '83 include Men at Work, Asia, and Stray Cats. Post-mellow Olivia Newton-John hit it big with '82's number one song "Physical", but Toto swept the Grammy's with their album "Toto IV" and the single "Rosanna". Saginaw had a star-studded year bringing such acts as Hall & Oates, REO Speedwagon, Rick Springfield, Billy Squier, Kiss, Air Supply and Prince.

The 1982-83 T.V. season was one of frustration for the networks. The viewership across the nation fell as more and more people turned to cable and pay T.V. Even, so, CBS once again won the prime time programming as well as the late-night, while ABC dominated the day time programming. "M*A*S*H", a CBS work horse, left us this spring with the highest rating ever given anything on television. "M*A*S*H", however, was only third in final overall season standing. The two in front of it were the newsmagazine "60 Minutes", followed by the super-sudser "Dallas". It was also a dynamic year for mini-series. The Winds of War, The Thorn Birds, and The Blue and the Gray were among the many mini-series that dominated the air time when they were played.

The World of Football . . .

was rocked in the '82-'83 season. Midway through the NFL season there was a 57 day strike. After the strike the playoffs saw "Cinderella" (the Washington Redskins) overrun the Miami Dolphins 27-17 in the Superbowl. A new group, the United States Football League, was formed in the spring. Whether it will survive or not is still up in the air.

After compiling one of the best records in NBA history, The Philadelphia '76'ers rolled over the injury riddled Los Angeles Lakers in the NBA tournament final.

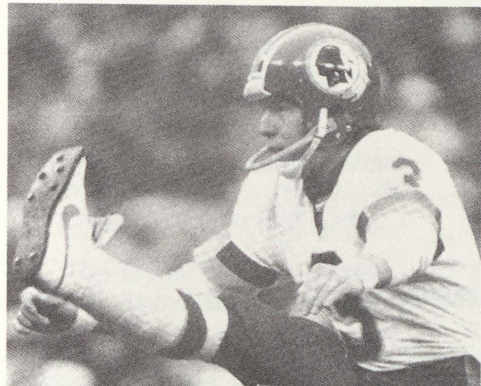

In baseball the St. Louis Cardinals won the seven-game world-series by winning two thrillers at home. The Tigers Lance Parrish broke the American League record for home runs by a catcher, and Milt Wilcox brushed with immortality this season by pitching a perfect game through 26 batters against the Chicago White Sox.

In college sports Penn State and Joe Paterno finally won a national championship by beating the then No. 1 Georgia (27-23) in the Sugar Bowl. Michigan again lost the Rose Bowl this year to UCLA (24-14). In basketball the North Carolina Wolfpack won the NCAA title with a stunning 54-52 upset over Houston and the powerful Phi Slamma Jamma.

Deaths this year included longtime Alabama head coach, Bear Bryant, boxing legend, Jack Demsey, and Korean prize fighter, Duk Koo Kim.

Politics dominated the news as usual.

Ronald Reagan continued in his term as president and James Blanchard became the first democratic governor in Michigan for at least the last fifteen years.

Terror spread throughout the nation when seven people died as a result of taking cyanide-laced Extra Strength Tylenol Capsules. The culprit was never caught.

The Nucleur Power Plant was postponed yet again. Right next door, Dow and Dioxin made national headlines with Dow claiming that dioxin is not hazardous to your health.

Construction of the Zllwaukee Bridge was delayed until 1986. A temporary expansion joint crumbled and allowed the unfinished level of the bridge to sag five feet.

In other news, Dr. Barney Clark became the recipient of the first artificial heart. He later died from lung failure.

The second space shuttle, the Challenger, made its maiden voyage last spring.

The United States Embassy in Beirut, Lebanon was bombed in what was the bloodiest attack ever against a U.S. Embassy. At least 17 Americans were killed.

Mike and Cindy McLaughlin of Freeland won $100,000 in the Million Dollar Taste Game at McDonalds. They were given the red carpet treatment by the Freeland McDonalds and later appeared on television commercials for McDonalds.

Saginaw received its first snow storm of the year on the first day of spring. Record high temperatures were set with the temperatures in the 60's on Christmas Day.

Bob Hope . . .

celebrated his 80th birthday and Princess Diana came of age at 21. On the sadder side of things, the past year saw the passing of Henry Fonda, Grace Kelly, John Belushi, and Ingrid Bergman.

The Prince and Princess of Wales became parents. Prince William, heir to the throne, was born July 21, 1982.

This year we saw the end of a long love, the return of an "old love, and the beginning of a new love.

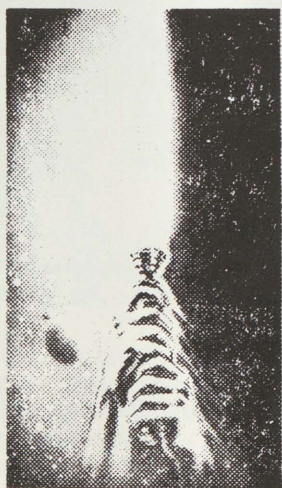

Love . . .

*After 11 years of running, the M*A*S*H series ended. The whole nation said their farewells with tears and toasts to one of the finest T.V. series.*

Movie goers fell in love with someone (something?) new — E.T. Young and old couldn't help but love this marvelous creature.
